Omnii Solutions announce the appointment of John Mawdsley as CEO

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Omnii Solutions Limited have today announced the appointment of John Mawdsley as Chief Executive Officer - John has been involved in the mortgage market for over 30 years and is well known for his most recent roles at The Mortgage Partnership and AMPD. Mawdsley started his career with Building Societies in the 70's and moved to centralised lending in the 80s, being part of the team that launched HMC in High Wycombe.

Omnii are the leading aggregators of data which through their Checkit system brings together anti money laundering, credit checking and electronic valuations data to provide organisations with the most efficient, costs effective and compliant means of validating customers throughout the value chain.

Checkit gives also those involved in the market the power to categorise risk in a standardised format, before, during and after sale it as it provides for an audit trail and a configurable MIS system.

Mawdsley comments: The team at Omnii have a built proposition ideally suited to meet the challenges of today's market and the vision to open up new markets. I am looking forward this new and exciting opportunity.

Mark Thelwell – Chairman added: We are delighted to have John on board and I look forward to working with him during the next stages of our development .

Editors notes:

Omnii were formed in 2007 by Nick Berry and Mike Sloan. The last two years has seen Omnii develop its software culminating in a launch at the end of 2009 with Trigoldcrystal. 2010 will see the addition of a number of new distribution contracts across the market
